Naturopathic Doctors in Moncton - Richard Bartlett, a Chiropractor and Naturopath developed a transformative healing system known as Matrix Energetics during the year 1997 after he had gone through a life-changing event. Mr. Bartlett discovered that he could reinstate the emotional, physical, spiritual and mental balance within his patients just by touching them lightly with focused intent. As an additional extra, he was able to correct misalignments which had troubled a few of his clients for several years. Richard discovered that he can teach anyone this particular practice which combines subtle energy with quantum physics, focused intent, and active imagination.

The body is a resonating matrix that has a biological field of information. According to the philosophy behind Matrix Energetics, the patterns within this matrix could become interrupted through physical or emotional injury. These disruptions can create embedded perceptions or habits which could block an individual from acquiring a state of happiness, prosperity, health and other positive situations. Matrix Energetics works to get rid of blockages, shift these embedded patterns and alter core beliefs in order to allow the individual to attain their goals in order to create the quality of life and sort of life preferred.

Matrix Energetics practitioners think that the restrictions are the source of an individual's problems and that the healing system of Matrix Energetics could instantly eliminate these limitations. This particular healing system is thought to remove the causes of both temporary and chronic problems like scoliosis, fibromyalgia, emotional trauma, headaches and muscle spasms amongst others.

The system of Matrix Energetics is a stand alone healing method although many practitioners use it in order to improve several healing techniques. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner can change the belief system of the customer and can change his or her beliefs concerning the structure of reality, the nature of disease and the healing process. Usually, recipients can feel a wave pass through their bodies since their previous view of reality is altered and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

Space and time are not a part of realism at the quantum level. An individual's consciousness can affect how subatomic particles behave, according to the quantum theory. Because the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, that can be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta could appear everywhere concurrently and also move forward and backward in time. A person's consciousness can affect these quanta to change emotions and physical matter. This particular information and these views have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the shifts which happen on the cellular level within the person.
